Turkish Army in Palestine Has Ceased to Exist As a Fight-

(By the Associated Press.)

American troops—boys from New York, Tennessee and North and South Carolina—were in the thick of the fray Sunday which badly smashed the German positions over a front of more than 50 miles from the region of Arras to LaFere.

On a three-mile front the Americans stormed the Hindenburg line and captured Bellicourt and Nauroy, crossing the Cambrai canal in the operation.

Meanwhile, to the south the British stormed the main Hindenburg defenses on the Scheldt canal, crossed the waterway and gained the hill beyond, taking many prisoners. To the north, the British have their hands on Cambrai, the important German base over which recently there has been so much fighting. The Canadians are in the northwestern outskirts of the city, while a naval division has reached the southern environs.

South of St. Quentin to LaFere, the French have pressed forward their line and taken some 500 prisoners. Along the Chemin-des-Dames the French have advanced their line for a distance of two miles, capturing the highest point on the famous ridges.

In Belgium, the Belgians and British have driven forward and taken Dixmude, ten miles from the North sea, southeast of Nieuport, bringing their line into closer union with that in the region of Ypres. The capture of Dixmude, if it is pressed for further gains eastward, will seriously affect the German submarine bases on the North sea.

Everything is going well. The Entente Allied troops everywhere are continuing to make progress against the forces of the Teutonic Allies.

In Belgium, Flanders and France material advances have been made of all the fighting fronts; in Serbia the territory of the overrun kingdom is fast being reclaimed, while in Palestine the Turkish army under the attacks of General Allenby and the tribesmen of the king of the Hedjaz has virtually ceased to exist as a fighting unit.

Additional large numbers of the enemy have been made prisoner and large quantities of stores have been captured.

Keeping up relentlessly their violent attack from near the sea in Belgium to the region of Verdun, the Belgian, British, American and French troops are fast driving wedges into the enemy lines, forcing him to retreat or defeating him in sanguinary battles.

No rest is being accorded to the Germans and apparently their front is fast going to pieces under the impact of the Allied blows.

Belgians Take 6,000 Prisoners. In Belgium, between Dixmude and Ypres, King Albert's men have pressed back the German front from four to five miles and taken 6,000 prisoners. Ground that the enemy had held since the invasion of Belgium in 1914 has been retaken to Belgian ownership.

Through the efforts of the mixed Belgian and British forces, and at last accounts the Allied forces were well on their way to the important junction town of Roulers.

Paris, France, Sept. 29.—The British, American and Belgian troops in the last three days have captured 40,000 prisoners and 300 guns. It is estimated here. Since July 18 the Allies have captured 200,000 prisoners, 2,000 guns, 20,000 machine guns and enormous quantities of material.

of Arras to St. Quentin, the British with the Americans fighting on their right, everywhere have penetrated the German defenses over the 35-mile front. Desperate resistance was offered by the Germans, but the Allied troops refused to be deterred and swept through the remaining portion of the Hindenburg line and are standing, according to the latest reports, virtually on the doorstep of Cambrai. More than 16,000 prisoners have been taken in this region since Friday.

Somme Department Cleared of Huns. Under the efforts of the British, Americans and French, the Germans have been cleared out of the entire department of the Somme, and part of the department of the Ardennes now is in French hands for the first time since 1914.

In union with the attack to the north, the French along the battle front north and northeast of Soissons have delivered fresh attacks, under which the Germans are in retreat north of the Aisne toward the Ailette, indicating that the enemy line soon must be readjusted eastward at least as far as Rheims, if not farther. The French now are on the banks of the Ailette river at the western end of the Chemin-des-Dames, making it apparent that this strong defense line soon must be passed by in retreat northward.

Enemy Uses Reinforcements. In Champagne and northwest of Verdun, the Germans have sensed to the full the seriousness of the situation facing them—where further advances by the French and the Americans of necessity will compel the readjustment of the line from the north to the Swiss frontier. Large numbers of reinforcements have been thrown into the battle in Champagne to halt the advance of the French toward the important junction town of Vouziers, but nevertheless General Gouraud's men have pressed forward northward from the region east of Rheims to the northern fringes of the Argonne forest, taking many positions of the highest strategic value.

Meanwhile, the Americans also have advanced their fronts, capturing Briailles-Sur-Meuse and Romagne and at last accounts were progressing favorably northward, along the Meuse valley and to the east of the Argonne forest, the turning of which by the combined forces of General Gouraud and Leger seems probable within a short time.

The Bulgarian delegates, who are endeavoring to arrive at terms with the allied forces under which Bulgaria will quit the war, have arrived in Saloniki, but the Italian, French, Greek, Serbian and British armies are keeping up their drive across Southern Serbia and into Bulgaria.

Bulgarian Base Captured. Krushevo, the Bulgarian base 20 miles north of Monastir, has been captured by the Italians, in front of whom the Bulgarians are in rapid retreat. The Serbians have won the important mountain range of Plachkovitsa, south of Kochana, while to the east the British and Greek forces have taken further territory from the enemy in the region of Lake Dolan and across the border of Bulgaria.

In Palestine, the victory over the Turks is all but complete. Friday night General Allenby had counted 50,000 prisoners and 200 guns.

The losses of the Teutonic Allies on the western front since the Allied offensive began July 18, have been 200,000 men made prisoner and 3,000 guns, 20,000 machine guns and enormous quantities of material captured.

Fourth Liberty Loan Gets a Good Start

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—Although treasury department officials today made no attempt to estimate the total sales on the opening day of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign yesterday, all indications were that the loan had gotten away to a good start.

Only one district committee, New York, had estimated its sales, placing them at $200,000,000, or one-ninth of the $1,800,000,000 allotted the New York federal reserve district.

"The spirit of the loan," said a treasury department statement, "is exemplified in a telegram from Worcester, Mass., a city which achieved its quota yesterday. An elaborate voting plan for putting over the city's quota had been worked out there, but it had to be abandoned at the last minute, because of an epidemic of Spanish influenza. Without a moment's hesitation, the sales committee adopted a new plan of selling and $15,000,000 was raised."

Most Amazing Week of War. (British Wireless Service.)

London, England, Sept. 29.—The past week has been the most amazing of the war. The Allies are advancing victoriously on practically every front. During the week they have taken prisoners far in excess of 100,000, of whom nearly 40,000 were captured in the last three days on the west front and 50,000 in Palestine. They also have taken more than 900 guns.

Sir Douglas Haig reports further successes. The town of Cambrai is now under British fire. Here the main Hindenburg line has been pierced and the Allied troops are sheltered in commodious German dugouts. The battle is continuing in favor of the Allies and the Germans are in the midst of confused retreat. Gouzeaucourt and Maroing are in Allied hands.

Many Attacks Launched. A new offensive was commenced Saturday in Flanders, where Belgians, in conjunction with the second British army, attacked on the front between Ypres and Dixmude. Poelcapelle has been captured as well as most of the forest of Houtholst. Sunday morning, British and American troops launched a new attack northwest of St. Quentin and the battle is proceeding fiercely on the whole front from St. Quentin to the Scarpe. Further progress is reported on points included in the previous attack and the number of prisoners taken by the British since Friday morning exceeds 16,000.

Route of Bulgarians Complete. In Serbia the rout of the Bulgarians is complete. The Serbians are facing for Uskub to cut off the enemy's communications, while on the flanks British, French, Greek and Italian troops are advancing as far as possible. The number of prisoners taken and war booty are enormous.

In Palestine, the Turkish army has ceased to exist as a fighting force. The result of the Allied successes in Macedonia also are becoming apparent. According to a dispatch from Geneva, information has reached Switzerland to the effect that the Germans already have begun to withdraw occupation troops from Rumania.

Paris, France, Sept. 29.—On the western end of the Chemin-des-Dames the French have reached the River Ailette at two points, says the statement from the war office today. In Champagne, after repulsing strong attacks, the French have taken the heights of Bell Evre, northeast of Gratreuil.

Paris, France, Sept. 29.—Prisoners to the number of 50,000 and 325 guns had been counted by the British in Palestine Friday night, according to an official communication issued tonight. Notwithstanding Turkish resistance in the region of Tiberias, the British forced further passages of the Jordan. To the south, the British cavalry drove the enemy northward through Mezcrib and joined lands with the forces of the king of the Hedjaz.

GERMANY SAYS WE BREAK WARRULES

Berlin Sends Ultimatum to U. S.
Protesting Yanks' "Illegal"
Use of Shotguns

THREATENS REPRISALS

Washington Denies Charge—No
Anxiety Among Officials
Over Threat

Amsterdam, Holland, Sept. 29.—Germany, through the Swiss legation, has sent an ultimatum to the government of the United States that if no satisfactory answer is forthcoming by October 1 to the German protest about the use of shotguns by American soldiers, "reprisals will be taken."

A semi-official telegram from Berlin gives the following additional details of the note:

"From prisoners captured during a skirmish between patrols on August 27, a repeating shotgun was taken. The prisoners, who belong to American infantry regiment 307, of the 77th division, stated their patrols possessed three such guns, each loaded with six cartridges and each cartridge containing nine shots."

Shotguns Are Illegal Weapons. "The use of such weapons is forbidden by the Hague convention as causing unnecessary suffering. The German government protests energetically and expects from the United States government that steps will be taken immediately to discontinue the employment of such shotguns."

"It is pointed out to the government of the United States that a prisoner on whom a shotgun or shotgun ammunition is found forfeits his life."

Washington Officials Not Disturbed. Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—The German protest against the use of shotguns by American troops has been received at the state department and an answer soon will be dispatched.

Shot guns are used by American troops, it was said today, only as authorized by the accepted rules of war. They are employed in general police work and in guarding prisoners, being more desirable for such work than the high-powered army rifle, because the firing of the latter might result in the death or injury of persons it was not intended to hit.

Germany's threat of reprisal is not causing any anxiety among American officials. The Americans hold 100 German prisoners to every ten Americans in enemy prisoner camps.

President May Draw First Capsule in Draft Lottery

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—President Wilson may draw the first and Vice-President Marshall second of the master numbers in the third great military draft lottery to be held tomorrow in the senate office building.

Provost Marshal General Crowder would not say tonight who would take the first of the 17,000 capsules from the bowl but it was reported that the President would do so.

Arrangements for the drawing, which is to start at noon and which will determine the order in their respective classes of the 13,000,000 men between 18 and 45 who registered Sept. 12, had been completed tonight. The big caucus office in the senate building will be used, indicating that there would be more spectators than were present for the first lottery last year and the second last summer.

BATTLESHIP MINNESOTA HITS MINE OFF COAST

Vessel Proceeding to Port Under Own Power; No Casualties Reported

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—The battleship Minnesota struck a mine early today off the Delaware breakwater. There were no casualties and the ship is proceeding to port under her own power.

The navy department tonight issued this statement:

"The navy department is informed that the battleship Minnesota struck a mine early this morning off the Delaware breakwater. There were no casualties according to reports reaching the department. The Minnesota is proceeding to port under her own power."

There is no indication as to the extent of the damage to the battleship nor whether the mine was an enemy one. However, naval officers recall that mines were laid in these waters by the submarine which carried out the first raid off the Atlantic coast last May and June and the oil steamer Herbert L. Pratt was sunk by striking one of them. The fact that the Minnesota was able to reach port without assistance was accepted as indicating that the mine struck the ship near the bow and that she was not badly damaged.

The Minnesota is of the pre-dreadnought type, built at Newport News, Va., in 1905. She is of 16,000 tons displacement, 450 feet long and in normal times carries a complement of 955 officers and men. Her armament consists of four 15-inch guns, eight eight-inch and a number of smaller rifles.

LAURENS AND EMMESTON LADS BADLY WOUNDED

Charles Becker and Everett Stevens on Casualty List Issued
For Today

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—The casualty list issued today by the war department contains 277 names, divided as follows:

Killed in action, 37; missing in action, 17; wounded severely, 229; died from wounds, 22; died from accident and other causes, 3; died of disease, 5; wounded, degree undetermined, 2; total, 277.

In the above list are included the names of Charles A. Becker, whose emergency address is given as O. Van Wormer, Laurens, and Everett J. Stevens, Edmeston. Both of these lads are reported as "wounded severely."

Charles A. Becker came to Laurens about a year ago and worked for Mr. Van Wormer. He was drafted by the Binghamton board about last April and reported there for service. Recently he was reported missing in action. So far as is known in Laurens he has no near relatives other than a brother, who is also in the service. Reports reached Laurens that the brother had recently been severely wounded but this is not known definitely.

Inquiry at Edmeston last evening brought intelligence that neither Everett J. Stevens nor D. H. Stevens were known in that village, although there may be such a man in the service from that town.

GETMAN-WHIPPLE WEDDING

Over One Hundred Friends Witness Ceremony at Home of Bride's Parents Saturday Evening.

Miss Genevieve Whipple and Ensign Herbert C. Getman, U. S. N., were married at six o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Whipple, 51 Chestnut street in this city. The impressive ring service was used and the ceremony was performed by Rev. B. M. Johns, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The wedding party included Miss Elizabeth Bickford of Philadelphia, Pa., a girlhood friend of the bride, as maid of honor; Damon Getman, brother of the groom, as best man; and Misses Henrietta Getman and Barbara Lane as flower girls. The ribbon girls, by whom a lane was made for the bride from the hall through the parlors to the altar, were the Misses Alice Ford and Dorothy Coates, cousins of the bride; Marcia Liberman of Utica, Glendolyn Lawson of Peekskill, Carol Stewart, Grace Miller, Marie Saxton and Mrs. John D. Capron of Oneonta. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown was of white satin with georgette cape, and the wedding veil of white tulle was worn by her mother at her own marriage 28 years ago. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, and her only ornament was a diamond bar pin, the gift of the groom. The maid of honor wore a cream embroidered net and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with blue and gold tulle. The flower girls were in white and carried gold baskets of roses and asters. The wedding was a military one, the groom wearing the full uniform of the service, and the altar before which the vows were said was decorated with palms, white chrysanthemums and asters, and with the colors of the United States and her allies. The general color scheme was yellow and white. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Arthur E. Ford, who also played Jensen's "Bride's Song" softly during the service.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and Ensign and Mrs. Getman were the recipients of heartfelt congratulations, after which refreshments were served to the more than one hundred guests. The bride's table was decorated with Ophelia roses. At a later hour Ensign Getman and bride departed by auto for Cooperstown, where they remained at the O-te-sa-ga over Sunday. They leave this morning for New York, whence they go to Charleston, S. C., where the groom is stationed on service aboard an American submarine destroyer.

The wedding gifts, testimony of the regard of many friends, were numerous and beautiful, including besides a profusion of silver, a substantial sum in money and in Liberty Loan bonds. The bride's gift to her attendant was a bar pin set in sapphires and to the flower girls were turquoise rings.

The bride, who is a life-long resident of this city, is a graduate of the Oneonta High school, class of 1913, and of Wellesley college, '17. She has been during the past two years actively engaged in Red Cross work, and has rendered most efficient service as chairman of the publicity and information bureau of the Oneonta chapter.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Getman of this city and is a graduate of the Oneonta High school and of Hamilton college. After a year in business at Syracuse he joined the Officers' Training camp at Madison barracks. Later he enlisted in the navy and after a training course on the naval training ship in New York harbor he was commissioned as ensign in March last and assigned to service in Charleston.

Both are well-known, respected and popular residents of Oneonta and they have a host of friends here and elsewhere who will join with the guests of Saturday evening in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Among the guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. George Clapsaddle, Mrs. Albert Getman and Douglas Erskine of Syracuse, Mr. Horace Getman and daughter Margaret and Mrs. Herbert Getman of Richfield Springs, Miss Marcia Liberman of Utica, Miss Glendolyn Lawson of Peekskill, Miss Elizabeth Bickford of Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Mary MacKie of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Geo. Coates and Miss Lyman of Colliers.

With "Yankee Trophy" Trains.

The special mission of the "Yankee Trophy" trains which are traveling through the rural sections of the Second Federal Reserve district with relics from the battlefields in France, is to bring the war home to the population of these sections. The exhibit of guns, helmets, rifles and other war material taken from the Germans in their recent great defeats has the backing not alone of the treasury officials, but is receiving active co-operation at the hands of the great farmers' organizations of the district, such as the New York Federation of Farm, bureaus, the New York State grange and the Dairymen's league.

S. J. Lowell, master of the grange, W. N. Giles, secretary of the same organization, R. D. Cooper, president of the Dairymen's league, and S. G. Strivings, of the Federation of Farm bureaus, will accompany the exhibit and will have the co-operation of the members of their respective organizations in selling Liberty bonds at every stop.

SHRAPNEL KILLED JOHN STILES

PRIVATE RECORD DIES IN SAME MANNER WHEN LOCAL COMPANY G BOYS ARE IN FRONT LINE TRENCHES.

Three Interesting Letters From Oneonta Soldier Boys Reveal That Our Boys Have Seen Strangest Action—People at Home Cannot Realize What War is Like.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thayer of 24 Broad street have received a letter from Private Charles Saxton, with Company G, in France, interesting extracts from which follow:

"Somewhere in France," August 24, 1918.

Dear Friends:
Your most welcome letter received and was glad to hear from you. I would have written before but we have been in the trenches and there was little time to do anything except to watch out for Jerry. Every night that were were in the front line the Germans gave us an awful bombardment for 21 nights, but we sent him back some that were a lot worse than his own.

Two men of our company were killed, Sergeant Stiles and Private Record, both Cooperstown boys. They were killed by shrapnel. We got a little gas but some of us suffered very much from it. We were all pretty well when they brought us back behind the lines 'er a rest. We will be in again by the time you get this.

Yes, I feel like an old soldier but I'll be a darn sight older if we stay here till the war is over. You people back home can't begin to realize what war is and trench warfare especially. The Tommies seem to think that this winter will see the war over, but I don't think so, although I hope so. I tell you if you could spend one day in the trenches you would want to go over the top and kill every German. I know I thought of the happy days I spent on the old Pardee farm and I guess every thing that I had ever done. It sure did seem funny.

Give my old friends my best regards. I will close, hoping to hear from you. Write soon and don't forget your old friend.

Private Charles Saxton.

The following letter was received by Mrs. H. C. Olmstead, 107 Elm street, from her son, Private Levi H. Olmstead, of the local Company G, now in France:

Trenches "Like Being in Hell."
"Somewhere in France," August 21, 1918.

Dear Father, Mother and Little Sisters:

Will try to write you a letter. I am well and all right and hope this finds you all well and enjoying yourselves. Today is a beautiful day and hope you are having just as nice weather back home as the last two weeks have been over here. It sure is wonderful weather for the farmers to harvest their grain.

I received a very fine letter from Eloise four days ago and was glad to hear from her once more and to know she was enjoying herself back in Oneonta, where I would like to be, but summer school must be over by now.

We have been up to the trenches. We were there — days and it was — days like being in hell, it hell is like what people picture it. But I am all right. The shells were the worst as they landed all around us. The closest was about seven feet from me and if there hadn't been a turn in the trench—well! But thanks to the One that has always watched over me, I came out without a scratch. For three days we were about 75 yards from the enemy's barbed wire, then we were moved back to the next line. I don't know whether a fellow can get used to it or not, but we will be after them again soon.

Be sure to write often for I do enjoy the letters from home. I just received the letter Vesta wrote when you were up there. It was dated June 2, so if you write to her tell her I received her letter.

I must close now and write another letter.

Love and best wishes, Levi

James Boylan in Base Hospital.

James J. Boylan of Burnside avenue has received the following letter from his son, Cook James J. Boylan, Base hospital 37, Dartford, Kent, England:

August 27, 1918.

Dear Father:
Just a line to let you know that I am sick in the hospital with rheumatism in the leg. But don't worry about me. I soon will be well again and ready to go back to the lines again, if I can. I suppose you know by this time that we are in the lines and you probably read in the papers the names of some of our boys that kicked off. It sure was too bad, but we all expected it. I am getting treated fine here. It is an American base hospital, the others I had been in were English.

Well, dad, I don't think it will be long before Jerry kicks in. We have made drives on all sectors and gained ground. It is getting dark now so I will have to close. Answer soon.

Your loving son, James

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Market.

New York, Sept. 29.—International developments, both political and military, and the inauguration of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign were the paramount influence in the stock market last week. The war and loan situation, foremost in the discussions in the financial districts, were regarded as being solely responsible for the persistent advance in prices, which had its inception after last week's liquidation.

This rise, only occasionally deterred by profit taking or by momentary periods of heaviness, attributed to adverse incidents affecting certain shares of the more volatile character, carried many issues into new high ground for the movement, with the upward tendency benefited by conviction that the market was in a strong technical condition than it was a week ago.

There were a number of factors, comparatively subordinate, which contributed to the improved sentiment. The organization of the Essential Industries Finance corporation furnished reassurance to public utilities. Prospects of large new contracts made equipments attractive to investment buyers. Increased trade prices granted iron producers benefited the position of steel issues. Railroad shares responded to the government's plan to take over the short lines with assured increases in rate. Several extra dividends were declared, as Central Leather and American Ice.

False Fire Alarm.

Saturday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, the firemen were called to the corner of Chestnut street and West End avenue by an alarm sounded from the box at that corner. When they arrived it was found that Milton, the six-year-old son of Lavern Gile, had innocently climbed up in his express wagon and opening the box had pulled the lever. Investigation satisfied the firemen that the lad did not intend to sound an alarm, but was curious to learn about the thing. While it was said that an older boy had suggested the act to him, this could not be substantiated.

FINDS PARTRIDGE IN DOOR YARD

Bird Believed to Have Been Dazed by Contact with Some Object.

Saturday morning, when Mrs. Clark N. Goodspeed went out to secure The Star, she observed what she first thought was a chicken in the yard, but closer observation revealed that it was a partridge, apparently full grown. Before she could stop the family dog, which went out the door with her had one foot on the tail of the partridge. When he restored it in response to her command the bird made no effort to fly away, not even when she approached and picked it up. She was perplexed as to whether partridges hereabouts are becoming tame or what the significance. She thought first it might be the North Franklin bird, which has formed an acquaintance with mankind and lost its fear, and then it had decided to visit the city. Later, after conferring with City Judge Shove and Chief

Elizard, Mr. Goodspeed walked to the woods on the Franklin turnpike and liberated the bird. It stood erect when placed upon his open palm and poised for an instant or more and then flew away to a nearby clump of bushes and was lost to view.

Attorney Wohleben, a local authority, is of the opinion that the bird is not another domesticated one, but had struck some object while flying about or over the city and was still dazed when found by Mrs. Goodspeed. He says that it occurs occasionally that one falls in the city from this cause.

THE DRIVE CONTINUES.

The drive in all sectors of the Allied offensive continues to progress favorably, as readers of the general war news for the past few days fully understand. No longer is the fighting confined to a single sector, or to a single front, as was earlier the case. In fact the fighting everywhere is becoming cumulative. First there was the struggle in the big salient between Soissons and Rheims. It was followed by another blow further north, and that by one still nearer the Belgian border, then back again to near Soissons, and so on one after another, but never two following each other in the same quarter, the aim being apparently to keep the enemy nervous and guessing. Soon there would be two attacks in one day, later the Turkish field was involved, then the Balkans and finally during the past two or three days all sections at once, with the enemy given no respite whatever.

The result of this fighting, the possibility of which unquestionably came through the arrival of a million and a half of Americans overseas, has been to disquiet the German war lords, or at least to dishearten and dismay the German forces. From it came the absurd peace proposal of two weeks ago from Austria as an indubitable mouthpiece of the elder brother. Its prompt rejection was a blow in itself to the Central Powers, who learned therefrom that no peace offensive would enable the Huns to trick the united Allies as aforesaid. It had tricked Italy and Russia, the latter almost to its ruin. Then, after the drive in the east, with disaster on disaster treading on the heels of the Bulgarians, came the proposition from Bulgaria of an armistice and the discussion of terms of peace.

This offer, as the other, received no favorable consideration. The delegates from Bulgaria would be received, replied the general in command, but—and his off-hand reply is now that of all the nations-at-arms—the offensive must go on. The only terms which will be accepted are unconditional surrender and such guarantees as will relieve the Allies of trouble from this time on in the Balkans. Whether Turkey has similar views on account of the great debacle in Palestine is not definitely known, but there is reason to believe that the Sick Man of Europe is a very sick man indeed and would do almost anything which would save his unprincipled skin.

Meantime the drive goes on. Town after town and city after city have fallen, and the aforetime-believed invincible Hindenburg line has become a tradition, its course for the most part overrun and left behind by the Allies. The news this morning, like the news of many preceding days, is more and more favorable, and there is now a hope which amounts almost to belief that the Germans are at last "on the run."

Heartening as these dispatches are, it should not be forgotten that Berlin is as yet some distance away from the most advanced Allied line, and that it may be some time before the vital points in Germany are reached. They will be reached, however, unless the enemy surrenders unconditionally at a date earlier, and it becomes us as Americans to do our full share at home, as our soldiers are doing theirs abroad, in the world contest. The big thing at home now is the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, and while east, west and south our soldiers are driving ahead on battle fields and are winning thereby the world's applause, it is for us to drive ahead in the task which the government has set us, which is to put the big financial drive "over the top."

DR. HENDRICK SUMMONED

To Aid in Combating the Influenza Epidemic at Boston, Mass.

Dr. Stanton Hendrick of this city is in receipt of a telegram from the federal authorities, summoning his aid, which reads substantially as follows:

"Lists of volunteers of Medical Service corps show your services are available for emergency public health work or wherever needed. You are urgently needed in Massachusetts to combat influenza epidemic. Will you not proceed immediately to Boston, Mass., reporting to Dr. U. S. Public Health Service at office of state commissioner of health for emergency duty. Advise your action. (Signed) Perry, acting surgeon general, Public Health Service."

Dr. Hendrick at once replied, stating that he will leave Oneonta this Monday morning at 9:45 o'clock, and arrive in Boston at 8 p. m. He will report at once for service. Dr. Hendrick has had considerable experience in grip epidemics and in the treatment of pneumonia, and will prove of valuable assistance to the medical forces in New England, where the epidemic of the Spanish influenza seems most prevalent. He early volunteered for any service he could render in the public health service in the states. He is ignorant as to the length of time his services will be required. It doubtless will depend upon the extent of the epidemic and its continuation.

LOCAL BOARD NOTES.

Five Limited Service Men to Entrain Oct. 4—Other News.

Mobilization orders received by the Local Board direct the entrainment of five limited service men to Fort Shoups on October 4. Notices will be mailed to the selected men today. Advance notice of this call was received by the Board several days ago but it was thought until the actual order was received that the entrainment would be postponed because of the Spanish influenza epidemic. A notice from the Adjutant General Saturday cancelled the call for 30 men from the district to entrain during the five-day period beginning October 7. "Due to the prevalence of Spanish influenza at the various cantonnements, the Provost Marshal General has directed that the movement of 12,000 Class 1, general service white men, entrainment beginning October 7, be cancelled until further notice. You are directed, however, to hold the number of men to fill the quota which you have been advised your Board would be allotted."

Whereabouts Unknown.

Questionnaires addressed to the following men have been returned to the Board as undeliverable: Joseph Killian, D. & H. Camp Car, Oneonta; Robert M. Banks, Worcester; Alvin Perkins, care Ira Stillman, Oneonta; Stanley Labinsky, corner Main and Chestnut streets, Oneonta; Ernest S. Hanson, Pearl River, N. Y.; Frank Fish, care Minnie Fish, Dunmore, Pa. The addresses given are those on the registration cards. Information in regard to the whereabouts of these men is requested by the Board. Unless they can be located within the next few days they will be reported as delinquents to the Adjutant General.

New Regulations Received.

Advance copies of the second edition of the Selective Service Regulations have been received by the Board. These regulations, consisting of nearly 500 closely printed pages, are based on the first edition, published last December, and on several hundred bulletins of changes and amendments promulgated since that time. The Board welcomes the new edition as it presents in indexed form essential material which was contained before in hundreds of unindexed bulletins, telegrams, pamphlets, and form letters. The new regulations contain many important changes having to do with the registration, classification, examination, induction and mobilization of men.

SCHOOL GARDEN DIPLOMAS.

Pupils of Oneonta City Schools Receive Awards Last Friday.

Awards for the best gardens cultivated solely by the pupils of the public schools of the city were made on Friday last, when eight pupils of the River street school, five from the Chestnut street school and five from the East End school received diplomas testifying to the high quality of their work. The diplomas were presented by Mrs. Susan C. Hoyt, whose efficient work as superintendent aided much in the success of the garden campaign, and a brief address was given at each school by Dr. George J. Dann. Diplomas were awarded as follows:

River Street School.

First, Harry Frary; second, George Decker; third, Vida Whitney; fourth, Anna Alger; fifth, Wallace Baker; sixth, William Jones; seventh, Gladys Price; eighth, Joseph Hoffman.

Chestnut Street School.

First, Frank Jenks; second, Emma Truesdale; third, Rudolph Hoyle; fourth, Mildred Otto; fifth, Audrey Reynolds.

East End School.

First, Willard Olds; second, Lillian Grosse; third, Gertrude Kenney; fourth, Mildred Scudder; fifth, Kenneth Duesler.

There were 290 pupils of the three schools who entered the school garden contest last spring. A few gardens were given up, a few young gardeners moved from the city and unfavorable circumstances hindered the growth of others, but altogether there were 150 gardens, which could be classed as excellent. These varied greatly in size and of course to some extent in quality, but it is the opinion of the superintendent that the products of the poorest of them were worth at least $10; while the best of them produced vegetables to the value of from $50 to $50. A low average would probably be $25 to the garden, which would be $3,750 added to the value of Oneonta food products by the young gardeners of the city—certainly a creditable record.

Miss Alice Newton at Camp Greene.

Miss Alice V. A. Newton, daughter of Mrs. Viola D. Newton of this city, and for several years assistant superintendent of the hospital at Clifton Springs, left last week for Camp Greene, N. C., in preparation for service overseas. She was accompanied by three other nurses from Clifton recruited by her for service. It is probable that in a short time they will leave for France.

Returns to Oneonta.

Carl Bedford, who for some time has been residing in Herkimer, will in a few days return to Oneonta, where he has a position in Herkimer's Clothing shop, in which some eight years ago he was employed.

Attended Fraternity Dance.

The Misses Ella Eggleston, Beulah Peil and Josephine Lauren spent the week end in Amherst, Mass., where they attended the first college fraternity dance of the year. They will return today.

Funeral Announcement.

The funeral of the late Joseph Kelly will be held from the family home on Susquehanna street on Tuesday, at 9 o'clock, and from St. Mary's church at 9:30 o'clock.

Bicycle Thieving Prevalent.

Last evening, about 5 o'clock, some one made off with the bicycle of William Brewster, which has been left standing at the curb in front of the Arthur M. Butts building and no trace of it had been secured at a late hour. Officers of this nature have been too prevalent of late and the police are determined to check it if possible. Offenders will quite likely receive severe punishment if convicted.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Remember, this is Linen Shower week. The Red Cross has been asked to furnish many articles for the hospitals in France.

—Chairman Butts has called a meeting of the City Liberty Loan committee for Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Chambers of Commerce rooms.

—F. W. Smith has resigned his position with C. C. Miller, to take effect October 1, at which time he will enter the employ of A. E. Ford & Son, Market street.

—There was a display of northern lights last evening, which while lacking the brilliancy of some months ago, still was worth seeing and attracted the attention of many.

—The pressure canner will be open Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Whether it will be operated after Wednesday will depend upon the demand made by patrons.

—Mrs. W. A. Noble of 65 East street has purchased the new cottage of Harrison Styles on Morgan avenue and will occupy the same as a residence at an early date. The sale was made by Ceperley & Morgan.

—If all who were attracted by the whirling electric lights and stopped to read the convincing posters for the Fourth Liberty Loan in the window of the Boston Kandy Kitchen Saturday evening buy what bonds they can afford, Oneonta will find it an easy matter to subscribe its quota, in this loan.

—At a meeting of the United Commercial Travelers last Saturday evening several candidates were elected to membership and applications from others were received. Owing to the absence of candidates from the city the initiation was deferred to the next meeting, which will be held the fourth Saturday in October, when a large class will be received. The matter of holding a series of social gatherings during the winter was also favorably considered and action will probably be taken at the October meeting.

—The splendid result obtained Saturday by the Wilber National bank in entering subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan surpasses all records heretofore made in this vicinity. Total subscriptions of $135,500 from 39 subscribers is indeed gratifying. This bank will use untiring efforts to make the quota of Oneonta go well over the top and offers its services in this patriotic cause free to all whether depositors of the bank or not. Subscribers in non-banking communities will be faithfully cared for and credit given to their towns.

MAKE WAR CHEST PAYMENTS.

Report to Oct. 1 to Be Published Soon with Number of Delinquents.

It is urged that all who have failed to make their War Chest payments in full to October 1 do so today as the report of all receipts and disbursements to and including Sept. 30 is soon to be made with a statement of the number of signers, the number who have paid and the number of delinquents. It will be to the credit of the city to have as few delinquents as possible and it is hoped that many payments will be made before the close of business today.

There is soon to be made upon the Chest a heavy draft to meet the share of the city of the allied relief work and the funds will be needed with which to meet the amounts to be appropriated to these seven organizations, all of which are worthy the support of the Chest. Payments should be made at the office of the collector adjacent to the chamberlain's office at the Municipal building.

Date Is October 27.

The man who has been longing for the hour of sleep which he lost during the night of March 21, when the daylight saving law went into effect, will have to wait for that pleasure until Oct. 27, as that is the time for the change back, as fixed by law.

QUOTA IS HALF TAKEN

LIBERTY LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS IN ONEONTA CITY FIRST DAY $304,500.

Wilber National Bank Alone Sells $185,500 With Its President, George L. Wilber, Taking $50,000 Personally—Locomotive Department of D. & H. Here Boys $33,000 Worth Opening Day—Women's Committee Busy.

Oneonta opened the campaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan with little fuss and feather yet with a bang that is exceedingly gratifying, there being secured in actual subscriptions over $304,000 or about one-half of the quota for the city. This is undoubtedly the record for the city for the opening day and indicates that the amount apportioned to Oneonta will be largely over-subscribed. Much of the credit for the first day's happy results redounds to the glory of the Wilber National bank. The president of that institution, George L. Wilber, subscribed for $50,000 personally and during the three hours of the banking day the total subscriptions at that bank reached the handsome sum of $135,500 or more than one-fourth of the quota for the city.

The Citizens' National bank at the close of business at noon reported the subscriptions at that institution aggregated $82,000. The Locomotive department of the D. & H. company, which was the only department fully organized for work on the opening day, reports subscriptions totaling $34,000 in the city alone, which amount is nearly equal to the amount subscribed by the department on the entire division of the Third Loan. There were at least $10,000 subscriptions known to have been taken and not reported. Not including the latter amount, however, the city's total for the day is $304,500.

Today all committees will be at work and as all workers appreciate that there are only three weeks in which to secure the amount needed by the government, it is expected that the task will be entered into heartily and with vigor. Tomorrow evening the sale of the bonds will be given a decided impetus by the visit to the city of the "War Trophies" train, which will remain over night with a big rally about the D. & H. station shortly after the arrival of the train. It is hoped that all will turn out to see the collection of war relics and also to welcome and honor the men from Pershing's force who have been invalided home, as well as the representatives of the armies of our Allies who will be in the party.

The Women's committee of the city also began work on Saturday and the captains of all but three districts made reports of good progress, and it is evident that they are determined to make a good showing. They are to report to the treasury department the number of subscribers secured by them and the amount, and they have every reason to hope that they will share in the glory of putting Oneonta over the top with a sizable over-subscription.

On Friday evening of this week Dr. J. C. Russell and Dr. George J. Dunn are announced to address a big rally at Schenectady and other mass meetings are to be held about this district during the three weeks' intensive campaign.

Did You Hear About It?

It was the Safety First movement at the theatre last Thursday evening and the theatre last Thursday evening was great. The theatre was never used for a better purpose. It made one think of the grand home owning work of the safe Oneonta Building and Loan association, which, for 30 years has been doing so much good in Oneonta. The two ought to be combined and used in the public schools and world. It thus make this a better old world. If you would live and let live, work and talk for both of them. advt 1t

THE YEAR'S OPENING NUMBER

Pauline Corella and Ricardo Bonelli at High School Wednesday Night.

The Corella-Bonelli concert and recital at the High school auditorium Wednesday evening, Oct. 2, marks the opening of the series of splendid entertainments to be given this winter under the direction of the Normal and Public schools. This announcement guarantees to the music lovers of the city a gala program of the highest merit.

A native of Italy, Pauline Corella was taken to France and Belgium early in life to continue musical studies that had begun under ideal conditions. The outbreak of the war found her in England at work with Seagle and forced the abandonment of her plans. She is the fortunate possessor of a soprano voice of rare limpid quality and pure silver tone which she uses with an art and insight that enable her to achieve interpretative work of unusual vocal and artistic significance.

Ricardo Bonelli is a pupil of Jean de Reska. He made his debut at the Brooklyn Academy of Music singing a leading part in "Faust." He has toured the large cities of America in operatic roles. The critics have declared his voice to be one of the most beautiful of baritones.

In this company are also to be found an excellent violinist, Miss Ruth Collingbourne, pupil of Weidig and Miss Marion Hyde, pianist, and protegee of Copeland.

This unusual company selected to open the twenty-ninth annual series in Oneonta under the management of the schools will afford the musical treat of the season. Tickets may be secured at Saunders Oct. 1, after 8 o'clock. Single admissions seventy-five cents.

LICENSES EXPIRE TODAY.

Mayor Ceperley Sends Note to Chief Blizard Calling Attention to Fact.

Oneonta becomes "dry" after today, the licenses held by the liquor dealers of the city expire at midnight and with it also there comes the state law in force prohibiting the bringing of intoxicants into the city after midnight tonight. There appears everywhere a manifest intention to discontinuance business and comply with the law.

In view of the changed conditions that will prevail, however, Mayor Ceperley has addressed the following letter to Chief Blizard:

Dear Sir:

As you are aware the right sell intoxicating liquors in the city of Oneonta expires Monday, September 30, 1918. I believe the hotel and saloon management generally will obey the law, but should there be any attempt anywhere to disregard or evade in any respect its provisions, I shall hold the department of justice strictly accountable for its complete enforcement.

Very truly yours,
A. E. Ceperley,
Mayor City of Oneonta, N. Y.

HOLD YOUR LIBERTY BONDS.

Purchaser Should Not Sell Except in Case of Real Necessity.

The effort to separate Liberty Bond holders not familiar with stock and bond values from their Liberty Bonds has taken a new turn. The manipulators, instead of offering to buy the bonds at inadequate prices, offer in exchange for them the stocks and bonds of various wildcat corporations, whose face value is large but whose actual value is little or nothing.

The safest investment in the world is a Liberty Bond. For a patriotic American, Liberty Bonds are the best investment in the world. It is not only a wise thing to hold them, it is a patriotic thing to do. The soldier that takes a trench and then voluntarily gives it up is not to be compared with one who takes a trench and holds it against the enemy. An American who buys a Liberty Bond and then sells it, except in case of real necessity, is not so good an American as one who buys a bond and holds it.

Four Minute Addresses.

Oneonta Four Minute Men will present the Fourth Liberty Loan at the local theatres this evening. Following is the schedule:

Any donations of sheets, hand towels, Turkish towels, napkins or handkerchiefs will be gratefully received at Chestnut street Red Cross headquarters. If not possible to bring them, please telephone 79-J and they will be called for.

Critical Illness of Charles S. Jennings.
A telegram reached Oneonta Saturday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jennings bringing the tidings of the critical illness of their elder son, Charles S. Jennings, at Durham, N. H. A letter received a day or two before from Charles Jennings stated that he had been ill of grip for several days, but that he was feeling better. The letter was of a most encouraging tone and his parents were greatly distressed at the telegram, which gave no detailed information. No answer to a subsequent telegram had been received up to a late hour last evening.
Charles Jennings enlisted this summer in the military service as an electrician, and left August 31 for Durham, where he is in training at the New Hampshire State college. THIS WOMAN ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Others Have Done the Same.

Troy, N. Y.—"I suffered for more than seven months from a displacement and three doctors told me I would have to have an operation. I had dragging down pains, backache and headaches and could not do my housework. My sister who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound asked me to try it. I have taken several bottles and am now entirely well—so I do all my work—and not a trace of my old trouble. I have told many of my friends what wonderful results they will get from its use."—Mrs. S. J. Semler, 1650 5th Ave., Troy, N. Y.
Women who are in Mrs. Semler's condition should not give up hope or submit to such an ordeal until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

FOR HEALTH, COMFORT, and FUEL ECONOMY

It would be wise to investigate your present heating system and see that it circulates (not radiates) pure, warm, ever changing air, free from dust, gas and smoke. If it does less than this you are jeopardizing the health of your family.
Ask your doctor. He will tell you that the proper percentage of moisture in the air is supremely essential to comfort and health. Also satisfy yourself with regard to the importance of the proper circulation of the air. You get both in our installation of Glenwood Furnaces, either the one pipe or several pipe style.
Let us talk with you in regard to your particular case.
